"It'll be literal confinement for her, right here in the Poddy. Unless we can rig something for her, which X seriously doubt. Still want to go through with it, Lucy?". "You're right, of course. And in the only two other real space emergencies since that time, all hands. In his bedroom something rustled..She snorted. "I wonder. Do you have any idea what ifs like being locked up in her head for six." "We were provided for," Mary Lang said quietly. "They knew we were coming and they altered their plans to fit us in." She looked back to Singh. "It would have happened even without the blowout and the burials. The same sort of thing was happening around the Podkayne, too, triggered by our waste; urine and feces and such. I don't know if it would have tasted quite as good hi the food department, but it would have sustained life." Sirocco had endorsed the request, it was true, but Colman wasn't sure it would count for very much since Sirocco ran D

Company, and anything he said was probably inverted somewhere along the chain as a matter of course. Perhaps he should have persuaded Sirocco not to endorse the request. On the other hand, if anything recommended by Sirocco was inverted to start with, and if Pendrey was crazy but normal by the Army's standards, and if the premises that Pendrey was working with were also crazy, then the decision might come out in Colman's favor after all. Or would it? His attempt to think the tortuous logic of the situation once again was interrupted by Swley at last leaning back and turning his face away from the screen..Lang pointed to the twin globes in the middle of the room, still keeping perfect Earth time..The Organizer was using us..
